

Inglewood Primary School Board 2019 year in review

- The Board welcomed 4 new members this year:
Parent representatives- Jade Kingston and Andrew Sutherland
Teaching representative- Janice Davis and Martin Strong
- The Board sincerely thanks the contribution to the board and to the School as a whole to the following members whose term with the Board comes to the end this year:
Parent representatives- David Detata, Peter Marriott and Sharon Smith
Teaching representative- Julie Griffin
- Year to date there has been 5 Board meetings held. Items covered but not limited to, included monitoring the progress on the School's business plan, reviewing the Annual School Budget and monitoring actuals to budget throughout the year, approving 2020 contributions, charges and personal items lists and approving of any new or amended policies.
- Following the successful first independent review of the School in 2017 as an independent school, a new Development and Performance Agreement (DPA) was entered into between the School and the Department of Education. Following this, and using feedback from the Department of Education on our 2017 Review, a new business plan was developed for the three year period 2018- 2020. The business plan's targets and strategies are presented, discussed and reviewed at each meeting with contributions from staff and board included in the review document.
