iPromise – details

(What it means for Teachers, Students and Parents)

Teachers will:

- ensure that students in their class have been given permission by administration before they access their iPad at school;
- supervise students when using iPads;
- monitor student use of apps;
- communicate with parents to show how the iPads are integrated into teaching and learning;
- inform parents of any misuse of the iPad.

Students will:

- be responsible for their own iPad;
- ask permission before accessing their iPad;
- ensure their iPad is charged for the start of each school day;
- leave their iPad charger at home to recharge their iPad each night;
- store and always transport their iPad in a suitable case;
- leave their iPad in the classroom at all times until the end of the school day;
- ensure that their security codes are kept private from other students;
- show care and respect for their iPads and those of others;
- notify the teacher if the iPad is broken or fails to work properly;
- only use their iPad under adult supervision;
- ensure that my iPad is kept in my bag before and after school and is not used during these times;
- exercise responsible behaviour when using the iPad;
- respect the copyright of the images and other media that I access;
- use recommended personal headphones with their iPad;
- honour the iPromise.

Parents will:

- be responsible for maintaining the iPad;
- be aware of how their child is using the iPad at home;
- talk to their children about how to safely and effectively use the internet;
- support the school in their delivery of consequences for inappropriate use of the iPad at school;
- update and install apps as required;
- be responsible for insuring their child's iPad (School insurance will not cover personal student iPads);
- contact their insurance company if the iPad is damaged or stolen at school;
- be responsible for any damage or loss of their child's iPad.

Online Services Users will NOT:

- Access apps which are not relevant to education/ classroom topics.
- Play games using the iPad (unless under the teacher's instruction).
- Allow other students to use their personal iPad including access to online programs.

What Happens if the iPromise is Broken

- loss of iPad privileges (for a specified time) and other penalties according to the severity of the breach;
- parents will be informed about the breach;
parents may meet with teachers to discuss the broken iPromise and the consequences thereof.
